St. James's, December 28.

THE following Association has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Falmouth, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Association.

Cornwall. WHereas the Son of a popish and abjur'd Pretender, having actually set up his Standard, audaciously carries on an horrid and unnatural Rebellion, in Conjunction with wicked, ill-designing and traiterous Persons, and supported by France, Spain and Rome, the implacable Enemies to our Religion and Country, daringly avows his Intentions to dethrone our most gracious and only lawful Sovereign King George, subvert our Religion and Liberties, and entail Slavery and Popery on us and our Posterity; We whose Names are hereunto subscribed, in Abhorrence of such detested Schemes and Attempts, do hereby voluntarily engage ourselves, in the Bond of one loyal Society, and do solemnly declare, that we will (when called upon) be ready to appear armed in the best Manner we can, under the Command of the Right Honourable Hugh Lord Viscount Falmouth (empowered by his Majesty to command and form into Troops or Companies such Persons as are willing to associate themselves) or under some other Officer or Officers commission'd by him, in order to defend his Majesty's sacred Person and Government, preserve the Peace of this our County, our Religion, our Liberties, our Properties, and every Thing that is dear to us as Englishmen, and at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, oppose all Invaders, Rebels and Traytors whatsoever.

The above Association was signed by Six Thousand Three Hundred and Eighty-seven Persons.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Corporation of Penzance, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Falmouth their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the Corporation of Penzance, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Hearts full of Loyalty and Fidelity to your sacred Person and Government, at a Time when a Rebellion is raised and carried on in the Northern Part of this Kingdom.

With the utmost Concern, Abhorrence and Indignation we behold this wicked and unnatural Enterprize, which, if we consider the Person for whom it is avowed, or the Persons by whom it is supported, must evidently be intended to deprive us of our Religion, Liberties and Laws, and utterly to destroy our most happy Constitution in Church and State: A Constitution founded on the natural Rights of Mankind,

Mankind, and the only juſt Ends of Government, reſcued by our Anceſtors from the oppreſſive Encroachments of Tyrants and Papiſts, maintain'd at a vaſt Expence of Blood and Treaſure to this Nation, and enjoy'd by us in its full Vigour during the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's mild and gracious Adminiſtration, and ſhall, we truſt in the Divine Providence, be enjoy'd by our lateſt Poſterity, under Princes of your illuſtrious Houſe.

Theſe are national Felicities, which the People of other Countries muſt envy us, and none but the moſt infatuated or abandon'd Wretches of our own would attempt to raviſh from us.

We preſume to aſſure your Majeſty, from the Bottom of our Hearts, that with the moſt zealous of your Subjects, we are ready to hazard our Fortunes and our Lives in the Defence of thoſe invaluable Bleſſings.

May that glorious Ardour of Loyalty and Affection for your Majeſty, which now ſo univerſally animates your faithful People of all Orders and Degrees amongſt us, conſtantly attend and adorn your Reign; and may the wicked Attempts of its Enemies ever end in the Stability of your Majeſty's Government, and their own Confuſion.

Florence, December 7. By Advices from Rome we hear, that the Pope has given the Pretender Fifty Thouſand Crowns to carry on the Expedition in Favour of his Son in Scotland: And publick Prayers have been made in ſome of their Churches, and their Sacrament expoſed for his Succeſs.

Venice, Dec. 17, N. S. We are in daily Expectation of hearing that the Spaniards have entered Milan. Don Philip, after having ſtaid a few Days at Parma, went to Pavia, and ſome Detachments of his Army being advanced within a few Miles of Milan, he ſent to demand the Keys of the City, and to notify that he would ſoon come and receive Homage for the Dutchy. The Government immediately held a Council, and ſent a proper Deputation with the Keys to the Infant. The Great Chancellor, and other Officers of the Empreſs, after having provided in the beſt Manner for the Defence of the Citadel, in which there is a Garriſon of 2400 Men, ſet out for the Mantuan. Prince Lichtenſtein, with 13,000 Men, among whom were ſome Piemonteſe Battalions, was advanced to the Ticino, and had very near compleated his Bridge before the Spaniards were appriſed of it: As he had a good Train of Artillery, and the Spaniards wanted Cannon, he will probably have effected the Paſſage.

Turin, Dec. 18. The Spaniards have for this Week paſt kept hovering about the Lumellina, Vigevano, and the Borders of Teſin on both Sides that River, which has obliged the King of Sardinia to continue with the Army, and has kept Prince Lichtenſtein between Vercelli and Novarre: But they ſeem now determined to march to Milan, where they already have ſome Troops; and his Sardinian Majeſty is again expected at Turin in three or four Days. Marquis de Gorzegne is expected here To-night or To-morrow.

Annan, Dec. 21, Eleven at Night. The Rebels, to the Number of about 3000, came here laſt Night, and ſtaid till Ten of the Clock this Forenoon, except about 4 or 500, who proceeded forward to Drumfries laſt Night. Amongſt thoſe who ſtaid here were the young Pretender, the Perſons ſtiling themſelves Duke of Perth, and the French Ambaſſador, as alſo Lochiel, Clanronnald, Glengarrie, and Keppoch. Lord Elcho went laſt Night with the 400 to Drumfries, as did the reſt this Day, intending, as they gave out, to ſtay there till Monday next.

Another Body of the Rebels, of about 2000, marched Yeſternight from the Eſk to Ecclefechan, and ſtaid there all Night. The Mac Pherſons were of this Party, and Lord Ogilvy was with them.

It is thought that thoſe of them who went to Drumfries, will march towards the Forth by Sancqhair, Douglas, &c. and thoſe who were at Ecclefechan will march by Moffat, and join the others before they get to the Forth.

Annan, Dec. 23. The Rebels, to the Number of about 4000 (as is computed) went from hence to Drumfries on Saturday laſt the 21ſt Inſtant, and remained there till Seven of the Clock this Morning, at which Time they began to march, and had all left the Town before Eight. They demanded Two Thouſand Pounds Contribution at Drumfries, One Thouſand whereof was immediately paid, and, as a Security for the other, they have taken along with them Two Gentlemen as Priſoners. They alſo inſiſted on One Thouſand Pair of Shoes, paid nothing for Quarters, and did a prodigious deal of Miſchief every where. It is ſaid they marched from Drumfries this Morning in great Precipitation, being alarm'd by a Report, that a Party of the Army under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland was at Annan. We hear, that the Rebels who went to Moffat, and were computed about 2000 in Number, had Orders not to march from that Place till this Day; and it is ſaid the whole Rebel Army was to march North by by Way of Douglas. The young Pretender, Duke of Perth, Lord Elcho, Lord Pitſligo, Locheill and Keppoch, went by Drumfries; Lord Tullibardine, Lord George Murray, Lords Ogilvy and Nairn, went by Moffat.

Penrith, Dec. 23. The main Body of the Rebels was in this Town upon Wedneſday the 18th Inſtant, when their Rear Guard, which conſiſted of about 1000 of their beſt Men, was driven out of the Village of Clifton, by about Three hundred diſmounted Dragoons, twelve of whom were killed, and twenty-four wounded. As ſoon as the News arrived here, Orders were given by the Rebels to prepare for a March forthwith, and about Eight that Evening they ſet out from hence, and continued marching all Night towards Carliſle, where they arrived at Nine of the Clock the next Morning. The ſame Morning St. George's Dragoons came into this Town, and marched on without halting as far as Hesket, eight Miles from Carliſle, where they continued all that Night, and on Friday the 20th. His Royal Highneſs the Duke halted here with the reſt of the Army on Friday. At Four of the Clock on Saturday Morning our whole Army marched in three Columns towards Carliſle, his Royal Highneſs with the Infantry making the Center along the Poſt Road, and the Horſe and Dragoons in two Columns, one on his Right by Armathwate, and the other on his Left by Hutton Hall. They joined on Carlton Moor, and took their Quarters in the Villages round Carliſle, which Place the Rebels left on Friday, having ſtaid there but one Night to change the Garriſon. Whilſt the Highlanders were in this Town, they were guilty of great Exceſſes; they broke open ſeveral Houſes and Shops, took away great Quantities of Goods, and threw into the Streets, and ſpoil'd or deſtroy'd what they could not carry off.

Blichall near Carliſle, Dec. 24. Only Four Pieces of Cannon, of thoſe expected from Whitehaven, being as yet arrived, it has been neceſſary to defer erecting the Battery againſt the Walls of Carliſle, which was propoſed to have been done this Morning, if the Artillery had come up in Time. In the mean while it is juſt now reported here, that the Garriſon of the Rebels is retired into the Caſtle.

Whitehall, December 28.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Lieutenant General Henry Hawley to be Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Forces, in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain call'd Scotland.

Leiceſter-Houſe, December 21.

This Day the Baron de Boetſelaer, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the States General, had a Private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

December the 22*d*, He had a Private Audience of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales: To both which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, December 22.

This Day the Baron de Boetſelaer had a Private Audience of their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Amelia and Caroline; to which he was introduced by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.
